FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Eastern Illinois University's basketball Panthers begin a long season ending stretch of home games beginning with AMCU-8 opponent Cleveland State Saturday (Feb. 18) and IUPU-Indianapolis on Monday (Feb. 20). Game time for both is 7:30 in Lantz Gym.

These are the first two of six straight home games over the next two weeks. The season concludes with the AMCU-8 post season tournament at Springfield, MO March 9-11.

The Panthers and Cleveland State will be fighting to stay out of the AMCU-8 cellar. EIU is 10-11 overall, 3-6 and in sixth place in the conference after losing 53-52 at Southwest Missouri Monday.

Cleveland State, which won its first road game Monday at Valparaiso, is tied for last in the league with a 2-8 record and 8-13 overall.

These two teams met earlier this season with EIU winning at Cleveland, 67-66. That was the last game Eastern won on the road so the Panthers are definitely happy that part of the schedule is over.

"We've still got a shot at finishing in the first division but we'll have to win them all," said coach Rick Samuels. "We're the only team with no more road games . . . everyone else but Green Bay has at least two so we have a good shot at moving up."

Cleveland State was the Panthers first opponent when Eastern dedicated the opening of the current Lantz Gym on December 5, 1966 . . . EIU won that game, 97-85, with Jim LeMaster scoring 17 points, Don Templeman 16, Bill Carson, 15, Jim Corrora 11 and Charleston's Roy Smith 11.

EIU defeated IUPU-Indianapolis, 92-71, here in January, 1977 in the only previous meeting between these two clubs.

Games of 2/18: Cleveland State at EIU

Games of 2/20: Western Illinois at Southwest Missouri

IUPUI-Indianapolis at EIU

DUCKWORTH IN AMCU-8: Kevin Duckworth (Dolton-Thornridge), 6-11 sophomore center, has made the most impact of any EIU player in conference stats . . . he's third in three categories, shooting (58.6), rebounding (7.4) and blocked shots (22 in 21 games).

COLLINS GOING FOR 500: If Jon Collins (East St. Louis-Cahokia), 6-4 sophomore forward, maintains his current pace of 18 points a game, he could end up cracking the top five in EIU's all-time single season scoring list . . . Lloyd Ludwig's 522 (1956-57) is currently No. 5 on the list . . . Collins has 384 and is averaging 18.3 with at least seven more games and maybe more depending upon how far the Panthers advance in the post-season tournament.

WYSS ON TARGET: Tim Wyss (Cissna Park), 6-5 sophomore guard whose shooting struggled earlier in the year, has connected on 31-55 for 56% in the last five games to average 15 points during this stretch . . . that has boosted his overall FG accuracy from 43% to over 46%.

AND THE TEAM'S BETTER, TOO: Coach Rick Samuels Panthers, who have been at or near the 50% shooting mark in each of his four coaching seasons, are inching closer to that figure again . . . in five of the last six games EIU has been above the 50% mark hitting 194-359 for 54% during this stretch . . . the team is now at 48.7% with six straight home games expected to lift that figure more . . . conversely, the opponents hit only 44% during these last six games.

ABOUT CLEVELAND STATE: The Vikings are currently tied with Valparaiso for last in the AMCU-8 with a 2-8 league mark and 8-13 overall . . . they have had a particularly rough time on the road losing eight of nine games but the lone victory was Monday night at Valparaiso which boosted them into a tie with Valpo for 8th place . . . the Vikings big man, literally, is 6-8 senior Dave Youdath who is averaging 14 points a game and is tied for the conference rebounding lead with 7.8 per game . . . he's also fourth in AMCU-8 shooting at 58.4% . . . Clinton Ransey, a 6-4 freshman and former prep HM All-American, is scoring 13 points . . . he is the brother of former Ohio State All-American and current New Jersey Nets player Kelvin Ransey . . . another frosh standout is 5-8 Shawn Hood, scoring only 5.4 a game but getting over two steals and 4.7 assists, which rank high in AMCU-8 stats . . . the Vikings other conference win was an 86-66 blowout over Southwest Missouri.

ABOUT IUPUI: The Metros have an 11-13 record . . . they play Purdue-Calumet at home Saturday prior to the Monday EIU game . . . freshman guard Aldray Gibson leads in scoring with a 15.8 average . . . Kit Tramm, 5-8 junior center, is scoring 10.9 and leads with 6.5 rebounds . . . IUPUI is scoring 78 a game and allowing 74.

SAMUELS SAYS: "As we've been saying, with a strong finish we can still get up into the top half of the league standings . . . our schedule favors the rest of the way . . . plus a winning streak would give us some momentum and a better seeding going into the post-season tournament . . . so we still believe we have a lot riding on these last few games . . . right now we're working hard to improve our consistency . . . we're getting a good game or good half out of several people but still need to sustain that . . . (Kevin) Duckworth has been hitting the boards much better of late . . . he had 12 at Southwest Missouri and I think is getting about nine a game over the past half dozen."
